In this document, references to "Adjusted EBITDA" corresponds to net income before income tax, the share of income from equity affiliates, net financial income, depreciation and amortization, the impairment of goodwill, the gains resulting from acquisitions on favorable terms, and price complements. It is also restated for changes in the fair value of financial instruments, inventories, and sale and purchase commitments, except for the portion of these items related to trading activities, fluctuations in the fair value of biological assets, the seasonal effect, and non-recurring items. The seasonal effect corresponds to the temporary difference in the recognition of depreciation charges and price complements in the Group's financial statements according to IFRS and the Group's management accounts. Adjusted EBITDA before price complements is not a financial indicator defined as a measure of financial performance by IFRS and may not be comparable to similar indicators referred to under the same name by other companies. Adjusted EBITDA is provided for additional information purposes and cannot be considered as a substitute for operating income or operating cash flow.

Percentages included in the following presentation may be calculated on non-rounded figures and therefore may vary from percentages calculated on rounded figures.

CURRENT TRADING (MAR-DEC 2021)

- Revenue growth supported by a solid increase in Sugar & Renewables Europe and favourable prices attributed to Tereos' new commercial strategy. The volume growth and the higher prices on ethanol, protein and co-products also contributed to the increase in revenues for the Groups' Starch, Sweeteners & Renewables segments. However, this growth was offset by the drop in volumes sold owing to the poor 2021 campaign in Brazil
- Improved EBITDA driven by growth in revenue for the nine-month period December 2021, an increase of €51 million compared to the nine-month-period ended in December 2020
- Net debt decreased from €2,533m to €2,524m between March and December 2021. The stability in net debt compared to March 31, 2021 reflects positive cash flow from operations, which offset the effects arising from exchange rate fluctuations and IFRS16
